Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service

Mission of the Service

The purpose of the Internal Revenue Service is to collect the proper amount of tax revenue at the least cost; serve the public by continually improving the quality of our products and services; and perform in a manner warranting the highest degree of public confidence in our integrity, efficiency, and fairness.

Statement of Principles of Internal Revenue Tax Administration

The function of the Internal Revenue Service is to administer the Internal Revenue Code. Tax policy for raising revenue is determined by Congress.

With this in mind, it is the duty of the Service to carry out that policy by correctly applying the laws enacted by Congress; to determine the reasonable meaning of various Code provisions in light of the Congressional purpose in enacting them; and to perform this work in a fair and impartial manner, with neither a government nor a taxpayer point of view.

At the heart of administration is interpretation of the Code. It is the responsibility of each person in the Service, charged with the duty of interpreting the law, to try to find the true meaning of the statutory provision and not to adopt a strained construction in the belief that he or she is "protecting the revenue." The revenue is properly protected only when we ascertain and apply the true meaning of the statute.

The Service also has the responsibility of applying and administering the law in a reasonable, practical manner. Issues should only be raised by examining officers when they have merit, never arbitrarily or for trading purposes. At the same time, the examining officer should never hesitate to raise a meritorious issue. It is also important that care be exercised not to raise an issue or to ask a court to adopt a position inconsistent with an established Service position.

Administration should be both reasonable and vigorous. It should be conducted with as little delay as possible and with great courtesy and considerateness. It should never try to overreach, and should be reasonable within the bounds of law and sound administration. It should, however, be vigorous in requiring compliance with law and it should be relentless in its attack on unreal tax devices and fraud.

Introduction

The Internal Revenue Bulletin is the authoritative instrument of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for announcing official rulings and procedures of the Internal Revenue Service and for publishing Treasury Decisions, Executive Orders, Tax Conventions, legislation, court decisions, and other items of general interest. It is published weekly and may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents on a subscription basis. Bulletin contents of a permanent nature are consolidated semiannually into Cumulative Bulletins, which are sold on a single-copy basis.

It is the policy of the Service to publish in the Bulletin all substantive rulings necessary to promote a uniform application of the tax laws, including all rulings that supersede, revoke, modify, or amend any of those previously published in the Bulletin. All published rulings apply retroactively unless otherwise indicated. Procedures relating solely to matters of internal management are not published; however, statements of internal practices and procedures that affect the rights and duties of taxpayers are published.

Revenue rulings represent the conclusions of the Service on the application of the law to the pivotal facts stated in the revenue ruling. In those based on positions taken in rulings to taxpayers or technical advice to Service field offices, identifying details and information of a confidential nature are deleted to prevent unwarranted invasions of privacy and to comply with statutory requirements.

Rulings and procedures reported in the Bulletin do not have the force and effect of Treasury Department Regulations, but they may be used as precedents. Unpublished rulings will not be relied on, used, or cited as precedents by Service personnel in the disposition of other cases. In applying published rulings and procedures, the effect of subsequent legislation, regulations, court decisions, rulings, and procedures must be considered, and Service personnel and others concerned are cautioned against reaching the same conclusions in other cases unless the facts and circumstances are substantially the same.

The Bulletin is divided into four parts as follows:

Part I.—1986 Code.

This part includes rulings and decisions based on provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Part II.—Treaties and Tax Legislation.

This part is divided into two subparts as follows: Subpart A, Tax Conventions, and Subpart B, Legislation and Related Committee Reports.

Part III.—Administrative, Procedural, and Miscellaneous.

To the extent practicable, pertinent cross references to these subjects are contained in the other Parts and Subparts. Also included in this part are Bank Secrecy Act Administrative Rulings. Bank Secrecy Act Administrative Rulings are issued by the Department of the Treasury's Office of the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement).

Part IV.—Items of General Interest.

With the exception of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking and the disbarment and suspension list included in this part, none of these announcements are consolidated in the Cumulative Bulletins.

The first Bulletin for each month includes a cumulative index for the matters published during the preceding months. These monthly indexes are cumulated on a semiannual basis and are published in the first Bulletin of the succeeding semiannual period, respectively.

The contents of this publication are not copyrighted and may be reprinted freely. A citation of the Internal Revenue Bulletin as the source would be appropriate.

(2) Income from the rental on a bareboat basis of ships or aircraft used in international transport.

(3) Income from the rental of containers and related equipment used in international transport that is incidental to income from the international operation of ships and aircraft, and

The Government of the United Arab Emirates proposes that, if the foregoing is acceptable to the Government of the United States, this note and the State Department’s note in reply shall constitute an Agreement. The Agreement shall have effect with respect to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1994.

The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the United Arab Emirates and has the honor to refer to the Ministry’s Note No. 3/1/73/8742 dated October 7, 1997, covering a draft note from the Ministry of Finance and Industry, which reads as follows:

(4) Gains from the sale or other alienation of ships or aircraft used in international transport derived by a person primarily engaged in the international operation of ships or aircraft.

The Government of the United Arab Emirates proposes that, if the foregoing is acceptable to the Government of the United States, this note and the State Department’s note in reply shall constitute an agreement. The agreement shall have effect with respect to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1994.

This agreement shall continue in force until the government of either contracting state gives written notice of termination of the agreement to the other contracting state through diplomatic channels.

END TEXT

The Embassy, on behalf of the Government of the United States of America, confirms its acceptance of the terms of the Ministry’s note with the understanding that in the case of a United Arab Emirates corporation, the exemption from U.S. tax shall apply only if the corporation meets the ownership or public trading requirements of U.S. law. Therefore, the Ministry’s note and this note in reply constitute an agreement which shall enter into force on December 1, 1997, and shall have effect with respect to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1994.

This agreement shall continue in force until the government of either contracting state gives written notice of termination of the agreement to the other contracting party through diplomatic channels.

Part III. Administrative, Procedural, and Miscellaneous

26 CFR 601.105: Examination of returns and claims for refund, credit, or abatement; determination of correct tax liability.
(Also Part I, sections 6212; 301.6212-1)

Rev. Proc. 98-54

SECTION 1. PURPOSE

This revenue procedure provides taxpayers with instructions for entering into an agreement with the Internal Revenue Service under § 6212(d) of the Internal Revenue Code to rescind a notice of deficiency. This revenue procedure clarifies, modifies, and supersedes Rev. Proc. 88-17, 1988-1 C.B. 692.

SECTION 2. BACKGROUND

.01 Section 6212(a) provides that if the Secretary determines that there is a deficiency in respect of any tax imposed by subtitle A of title 26 (relating to income taxes), subtitle B (relating to estate, gift, and generation-skipping taxes), or chapters 41, 42, 43, or 44 (relating to certain excise taxes), the Secretary is authorized to send a notice of the deficiency to the taxpayer by certified mail or registered mail.

.02 Section 6212(c)(1) provides, in general, that if the Secretary has mailed to the taxpayer a notice of deficiency as provided in § 6212(a), and the taxpayer files a petition with the Tax Court within the time prescribed in § 6213(a), the Secretary has no right to determine any additional deficiency, except in the case of fraud, and except as provided in § 6214(a) (relating to assertion of greater deficiencies before the Tax Court), in § 6213(b)(1) (relating to mathematical or clerical errors), in § 6851 or 6852 (relating to termination assessments), or in § 6861(c) (relating to jeopardy assessments).

.03 Section 6213(a) states that within 90 days, or 150 days if the notice is addressed to a person outside the United States, after the notice of deficiency authorized in § 6212 is mailed, the taxpayer may file a petition with the Tax Court for a redetermination of the deficiency. Except as provided in § 6851, 6852, or 6861, no assessment of a deficiency and no levy or proceeding in court for its collection can be made, begun, or prosecuted until the notice has been mailed to the taxpayer, nor until the expiration of the 90-day or 150-day restriction period, as the case may be, nor, if a petition has been filed with the Tax Court, until the decision of the Tax Court has become final. Under § 6213(d), a taxpayer may waive these restrictions at any time.

.04 Section 6501 provides generally that the amount of any tax imposed by title 26 must be assessed within 3 years after the return was filed. Section 6503(a) provides that the running of the period of limitations in § 6501 is suspended (after the mailing of a notice under § 6212(a)) for the period during which the Secretary is prohibited from making the assessment or from collecting by levy or a proceeding in court, and for 60 days thereafter.

.05(1) Section 6212(d) provides that the Secretary may, with the consent of the taxpayer, rescind any notice of deficiency mailed to the taxpayer. Any notice so rescinded is not treated as a notice of deficiency for purposes of § 6212(c)(1) (relating to further deficiency letters restricted), § 6213(a) (relating to restrictions applicable to deficiencies and petition to Tax Court), and § 6512(a) (relating to limitations in case of petition to Tax Court), and the taxpayer has no right to file a petition with the Tax Court based on the notice.

(2) The Technical and Miscellaneous Revenue Act of 1988 (Act), § 1015(m), 1988-3 C.B. 232, amended § 6212(d) by adding the following sentence: "Nothing in this subsection shall affect any suspension of the running of any period of limitations during any period during which the rescinded notice was outstanding." This amendment is effective for notices of deficiency issued on or after January 1, 1986.

(3) The House Report accompanying the Act provides the following example to illustrate the operation of the final sentence of § 6212(d):

[A]ssume that six months remain to run on the statute of limitations with respect to a return when the IRS issues a statutory notice of deficiency. Issuance of this notice suspends the statute of limitations. If the IRS and the taxpayer agree to rescind the statutory notice, then as of the date the notice is rescinded, the statute of limitations again begins to run and (in this example) six months remains [sic] until the statute expires.

H.R. Rep. No. 795, 100th Cong., 2d Sess. 364 (1988).

SECTION 3. SIGNIFICANT CHANGES AND CLARIFICATIONS TO REV. PROC. 88-17

.01 Section 3.05(1) of Rev. Proc. 88-17 provides, in part, that the Service will not rescind a notice of deficiency if, on the date of rescission, the period of limitations on assessment would have expired but for the issuance of the notice of deficiency. This provision is deleted as a result of the 1988 amendment to § 6212(d), which clarifies that a notice of deficiency that is subsequently rescinded suspends the period of limitations until the date of its rescission. See section 4.05(1) of this revenue procedure.

.02 Section 3.05(4) of Rev. Proc. 88-17 provides that the Service will not rescind a notice of deficiency if, prior to the issuance of the notice of deficiency, the taxpayer and the Service have executed a Form 872-A, Special Consent to Extend the Time to Assess Tax, covering any of the tax years in the notice of deficiency. This provision is modified to permit rescission, provided the taxpayer and the Service execute another Form 872-A prior to rescission. See section 4.05(4) of this revenue procedure.

.03 Section 4.03 of Rev. Proc. 88-17 is clarified to provide that the Service may initiate rescission of a notice of deficiency. See section 5.03 of this revenue procedure.

.04 In lieu of using a Form 8626, Agreement to Rescind Notice of Deficiency, the use of an alternative document is authorized for rescission of a notice of deficiency. See section 5.06 of this revenue procedure.

SECTION 4. SCOPE AND OBJECTIVE

.01 This revenue procedure applies to agreements to rescind a notice of deficiency mailed to a taxpayer pursuant to § 6212(a). This procedure does not apply to a Notice of Final Partnership Administrative Adjustment (FPAA) or to a Notice of Final S Corporation Administrative Adjustment (FSAA).

.02 Whether a notice of deficiency will be rescinded is discretionary on the part of the Secretary. A notice of deficiency may only be rescinded with the consent of the taxpayer.

.03 If a notice of deficiency is rescinded, it is generally treated as if it never existed. Limitations regarding credits, refunds, and assessments relating to the rescinded notice are void and the rights and obligations of the parties that existed prior to the issuance of the notice of deficiency are reinstated. The rescinded notice does, however, suspend the running of the period of limitations under § 6503 for the period during which the notice is outstanding. The Commissioner or the Commissioner's delegate may issue a later notice of deficiency in an amount that exceeds, is the same as, or is less than the amount in the rescinded notice of deficiency. The taxpayer may exercise all administrative and statutory appeal rights from a reissued notice of deficiency, but cannot petition the Tax Court from a rescinded notice of deficiency.

.04 Except as provided in section 4.05 of this revenue procedure, a notice of deficiency may be rescinded for the following reasons:

(1) The notice was issued as a result of an administrative error: for example, the notice was issued (a) to the wrong taxpayer, (b) for the wrong tax period, or (c) without considering a properly executed Form 872, Consent to Extend the Time to Assess Tax, or Form 872-A;

(2) The taxpayer submits information establishing the actual tax due is less than the amount shown in the notice; or

(3) The taxpayer specifically requests a conference with the appropriate Appeals office for the purpose of entering into settlement negotiations. However, the notice may be rescinded only if the appropriate Appeals office first decides that the case is susceptible to agreement.

.05 The Service will not rescind a notice of deficiency under the following circumstances:

(1) On the date of the rescission, 90 days or less would remain before the expiration date of the period of limitations on assessment. However, a notice of deficiency may be rescinded in these circumstances if, before the rescission, the taxpayer and the Service execute a consent to extend the period of limitations on Form 872 or Form 872-A;

(2) The 90-day or 150-day restriction period under § 6213(a) has expired without the taxpayer filing a petition with the Tax Court;

(3) The taxpayer has filed a petition with the Tax Court; or

(4) The taxpayer and the Service, prior to the issuance of the notice of deficiency, have executed a Form 872-A covering any of the tax years in the notice of deficiency. A notice of deficiency may be rescinded in this situation, however, if prior to rescinding the notice of deficiency the taxpayer and the Service execute a new Form 872-A covering the same tax years as the earlier Form 872-A.

SECTION 5. PROCEDURE

.01 Taxpayers that wish to have a notice of deficiency rescinded should contact the person/office listed on the notice and request Form 8626. Taxpayers that wish an Appeals conference (see section 4.04(3) of this revenue procedure) should contact the person/office listed on the notice to find out how to contact the appropriate Appeals Office.

.02 A request to rescind a notice of deficiency should be made by the taxpayer as soon as possible after receipt of the notice because a notice will not be rescinded after the 90-day or 150-day restriction period under § 6213(a) has expired.

.03 If the Service determines that a notice of deficiency should be rescinded, the Service will send Form 8626 to the taxpayer requesting the taxpayer's written consent to rescind. If appropriate, Form 872 or Form 872-A will also be sent for the taxpayer's signature. If the taxpayer agrees to the rescission of the notice of deficiency, the signed Form 8626 (and Form 872 or Form 872-A if appropriate) must be returned to the office that sent the Form 8626 as soon as possible, prior to the expiration of the applicable 90-day or 150-day restriction period. After the Form 8626 is returned by the taxpayer and signed on behalf of the Commissioner, a copy will be sent to the taxpayer (and/or the taxpayer's authorized representative(s)). The effective date of the rescission agreement is the date on which the Commissioner's delegate signs Form 8626.

.04 If the notice of deficiency was issued to a husband and wife jointly, Form 8626 and, if appropriate, Form 872 or Form 872-A, must be signed by both the husband and wife, or their authorized representative(s). If Form 8626 and/or Form 872 or Form 872-A is signed by a representative, and a power of attorney has not previously been filed, the power of attorney must be included with Form 8626.

.05 Form 8626 must cover the same tax period(s) as the notice of deficiency to which it relates and must reflect the same tax deficiency and penalties as the notice of deficiency.

.06 Although use of Form 8626 is preferred, a document that reflects agreement by the taxpayer and the Service to rescind the notice of deficiency, pursuant to § 6212(d), may be used in lieu of Form 8626. Such a document will not be effective unless it contains the following:

(1) a statement that the taxpayer and the Commissioner's delegate agree to rescind the notice of deficiency;

(2) identification of the notice of deficiency, including the date it was issued, the type of tax, the tax period(s), and the amount(s) of the deficiency or deficiencies and any penalties;

(3) representations that the period of limitations on assessment has not expired and that the taxpayers have not petitioned the Tax Court;

(4) an agreement that the effect of the rescission is to return the parties to the rights and obligations existing immediately prior to the issuance of the rescinded notice of deficiency, including the right of the Service to issue a later notice of deficiency, for any amount, and the right of the taxpayer then to appeal to the Tax Court; and

(5) the signatures (on the same document) of both the Commissioner's delegate and the taxpayer (or the taxpayer's representative). If the document is signed by the taxpayer's representative, and a power of attorney has not previously been filed, the power of attorney must be included with the document.

.07 A properly executed Form 8626 (or a document as provided in section 5.06 of this revenue procedure) is the only way that a notice of deficiency may be rescinded.

.08 If the Service does not agree that the notice of deficiency should be rescinded, the taxpayer will be so notified in writing, and the notice of deficiency will remain in effect. If the taxpayer wishes to file a petition with the Tax Court, the taxpayer must file the petition within the applicable 90-day or 150-day restriction period, which may not be extended.

Part IV. Items of General Interest

Information Reporting with Respect to Certain Foreign Partnerships

Announcement 98-93

The Internal Revenue Service announces that it is requesting comments from the public on proposed new Form 8865 and its accompanying instructions. The form is to be used to satisfy the reporting requirements with respect to certain foreign partnerships under sections 6038, 6038B, and 6046A. Attached to this announcement is a copy of the proposed form and instructions.

BACKGROUND

The Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997 (TRA 97), Pub. L. No. 105-34, 111 Stat. 983 (1997), significantly modified the information reporting requirements with respect to foreign partnerships under sections 6038, 6038B, and 6046A. On September 9, 1998, the Service published in the Federal Register proposed regulations §§ 1.6038-3, 1.6038B-2, and 1.6046A-1. These regulations would implement the new foreign partnership reporting regime put in place by TRA 97. The proposed regulations provide that the information required to be reported pursuant to sections 6038, 6038B, and 6046A must be reported on Form 8865, Information Return of U.S. Persons with Respect to Certain Foreign Partnerships. Treasury and the Service have requested comments regarding the proposed regulations and have scheduled a public hearing on the proposed regulations for November 10, 1998. The hearing will be held in room 2615, Internal Revenue Building, 1111 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC.

REQUEST FOR COMMENTS ON THE FORM

Comments about proposed Form 8865 and its instructions may be made in writing and at the November 10, 1998 hearing. Treasury and the Service are particularly interested in receiving comments on whether the form's requirements are burdensome, and, if they are, how the burden might be ameliorated while still protecting the interests of the government and carrying out the purposes of the statute. Treasury and the Service also are interested in receiving comments on whether any of the information required by the form is duplicative of information reported elsewhere and whether any of the information required by the form is unnecessary. Outlines of comments regarding the proposed form that will be made at the hearing must be received by November 6, 1998.

Written comments about the form and instructions should be sent to: Chairman, Tax Forms Coordinating Committee, Internal Revenue Service, OP:FS:FP, Room 5577, 1111 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20224. Alternatively, you may e-mail your comments to tftpmail@publish.no.irs.gov.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Form 8865 is used by certain U.S. persons (see Definitions on pages 2 and 3) to satisfy the reporting requirements of sections 6038, 6038B, 6046A, and the related regulations with respect to certain foreign partnerships.

Who Must File

Generally, a U.S. person qualifying under one or more of the Categories of Filers below must complete the schedules, statements, and/or other information requested in the instructions and the Filer Categories - Required Information chart on page 2. Read the information for each of the filer categories carefully to determine which schedules, statements, and/or information must be submitted.

If the filer qualifies under more than one filing category, do not duplicate information. However, complete all schedules that apply.

Complete a separate Form 8865 and the applicable schedules for each foreign partnership.

Categories of Filers

Note: See Exceptions to Filing below.

Category (1) filer. This includes a U.S. person who controls a foreign partnership at any time during the annual accounting period of the partnership. Whether any person controls a partnership is determined by reference to the agreement of the partners relating to such interests during the period.

Category (2) filer. This includes a U.S. person who owns (directly, indirectly, or by attribution) at least a 10-percent interest in a controlled foreign partnership at any time during the annual accounting period of the partnership. However, any such person is not a Category (2) filer (and will not have to file Form 8865) if there is a U.S. person that is a controlling partner of the controlled foreign partnership during the same annual accounting period.

Category (3) filer. This includes a U.S. person who contributed property to a foreign partnership in a section 721 transfer during the annual accounting period of the foreign partnership (or during the U.S. person's taxable year, if such partner is not a Category (1) or Category (2) filer) if that person either (1) owned at least a 10-percent interest in the foreign partnership immediately after the contribution or (2) the value of the property contributed (when added to the value of the property contributed by such person or any related person during the 12-month period ending on the date of transfer) exceeds $100,000. For this purpose, if a partnership (whether foreign or domestic) contributes property to a foreign partnership, a U.S. person that is a partner in the contributing partnership is treated as having transferred a proportionate share of the contributed property to the foreign partnership.

Category (3) also includes a U.S. person that previously contributed section 704(c) property and was required to report the contribution under section 6038B, if during the annual accounting period of the foreign partnership (or during the U.S. person's tax year if such partner is not a Category (1) or (2) filer) the foreign partnership disposed of such property while the U.S. person remained a partner in the partnership.

Category (4) filer. This includes a U.S. person who has a reportable event during the annual accounting period of the foreign partnership (or during the U.S. person's taxable year, if such partner is not a Category (1) or Category (2) filer). A reportable event is (1) a direct or indirect acquisition of at least a 10-percent interest in a foreign partnership, (2) a direct or indirect disposition of at least a 10-percent interest in a foreign partnership, or (3) a change in proportional interest in a foreign partnership that is equivalent to at least a 10-percent interest in the partnership. A reportable event does not include any acquisition of an interest in, or change in proportional interest in, a foreign partnership in a transfer also subject to the reporting requirements under section 6038B. Under certain circumstances, this category also includes a U.S. person who has a reportable event during that person's prior tax year. See Proposed Regulations sections 1.6038B-2(j)(1) and 1.6046A-1(b)(2)(ii) and (j)(2).

Exceptions To Filing

Under certain circumstances, one U.S. person may file Form 8865 and the applicable schedules in satisfaction of the requirements for other persons described within the Categories of Filers. The U.S. person that files the required information will be considered to furnish Form 8865 on behalf of the non-filer and should complete Item B on page 1 of the form. Circumstances in which a U.S. person will be excepted from filing a separate Form 8865 are:

- If more than one Category (1) filer controls a foreign partnership during the same annual accounting period, then in lieu of all such partners making separate returns, only one return from one of the controlling partners is required to be filed. This return cannot be made by a partner that controls by reason of an interest in losses or deductions if another U.S. person controls by reason of an interest in capital or profits; the latter must file the return. To take advantage of this exception, the filed return must contain all of the information that would have been required to be submitted if each U.S. person filed a separate Form 8865. For example, a separate Schedule H must be attached to the Form 8865 for each Category (1) filer. In any case, all Category (1) filers must still file a separate return with the appropriate schedules if they are otherwise required to file as Category (3) or Category (4) filers.
- A Category (1), (2), (3), or (4) filer does not have to file Form 8865 if the filer does not directly own any interest in the foreign partnership, is required to file the information return solely by reason of attribution of ownership from another U.S. person, and the U.S. person from whom the ownership interest is attributed files Form 8865.

Definitions

Partnership. A partnership includes all entities that are classified for Federal income tax purposes as a partnership. See Regulations sections 301.7701-2, and 301.7701-3 and Form 8832, Entity Classification Election, for more details. A partnership includes a limited partnership, syndicate, group, pool, joint venture, limited liability company, or other unincorporated organization, through or by means of which any business, financial operation, or venture is carried on, and which is not, within the meaning of Regulations sections 301.7701-2, 301.7701-3, and 301.7701-4, a trust, estate, corporation or sole proprietorship.

Foreign Partnership. A foreign partnership is a partnership that is not created or organized in the U.S. or under the law of the U.S. or any state.

Partner. A partner is a member of a partnership, syndicate, group, pool, joint venture, organization, limited liability company or other unincorporated organization.

50-percent interest. A 50-percent interest in a partnership is an interest equal to 50% of the capital interest, 50% of the profits interest, or an interest to which 50% of the deductions or losses are allocated. For purposes of determining a 50-percent interest, the attribution rules of section 267(c)(1) and (c)(5) apply, taking into account that such rules refer to corporations and not to partnerships.

Section 267(c)(1) generally provides that an interest owned directly or indirectly by or for a corporation, partnership, estate or trust should be considered as being owned proportionately by its owners and section 267(c)(5) provides a reattribution rule under certain circumstances.

The rules of section 267(c)(2) and (c)(4) (family attribution rules) also apply for purposes of determining a 50-percent interest, but only if the person to whom the interest is attributed owns, directly or indirectly (under the attribution rules of section 267(c)(1) or (5)), an interest in the partnership.

Example. A does not own a direct or indirect interest in foreign Partnership K. Although A's brother owns 80% of foreign Partnership K, A is not treated as owning a 50-percent interest.

Example. A owns 100% of a foreign corporation, which owns 20% of foreign Partnership K. A's brother owns 30% of foreign Partnership K. A is treated as owning a 50-percent interest in Partnership K, because A indirectly owns 20% of the partnership and constructively owns an additional 30%.

10-percent interest. A 10-percent interest in a partnership is an interest equal to 10% of the capital interest, 10% of the profits interest, or an interest to which 10% of the deductions or losses are allocated. For purposes of determining a 10-percent interest, the attribution rules described above with respect to a 50-percent interest apply.

Control. Control of a partnership is ownership directly, indirectly, or by attribution of more than a 50-percent interest in the partnership.

Controlling partner. A controlling partner is a U.S. person that has control of a partnership.

Controlled foreign partnership. A controlled foreign partnership is a foreign partnership controlled by U.S. persons owning at least 10-percent interests.

U.S. person. A U.S. person is a citizen or resident of the United States, a domestic partnership, a domestic corporation, and any estate or trust which is not described in section 7701(a)(31).

Control of a corporation. Control of a corporation is ownership of stock possessing more than 50% of the total combined voting power, or more than 50% of the total value of shares of all classes of stock of the corporation. For rules concerning indirect ownership and attribution, see Regulations section 1.6038-2(b) and (c).

Penalties

Failure to file information required by section 6038(a).

- A $10,000 penalty is imposed for each annual accounting period of each foreign partnership for failure to furnish the required information within the time prescribed. If the information is not filed within 90 days after the IRS has mailed a notice of the failure to the U.S. person, an additional $10,000 penalty (per foreign partnership) is charged for each 30-day period, or fraction thereof, during which the failure continues after the 90-day period has expired. The additional penalty is limited to a maximum of $50,000 for each failure.

- Any person who fails to file or report all of the information required within the time prescribed will be subject to a reduction of 10% of the foreign taxes available for credit under sections 901, 902, and 960. If the failure continues for more than 90 days after the date the IRS mails of the failure, an additional 5% reduction is made for each 3-month period, or fraction thereof, during which the failure continues after the 90-day period has expired. See section 6038(c)(2) for limits on the amount of this penalty.

- Criminal penalties under sections 7203, 7206, and 7207 may apply for failure to file or for filing false or fraudulent information.

Failure to file information required by section 6038B. Any person who fails to properly report a contribution to a foreign partnership that is required to be reported under section 6038B and the regulations under that section (Form 8865, page 1 and Schedule I), is subject to a penalty equal to 10% of the fair market value of the property contributed. This penalty is subject to a $100,000 limit under section 6038B(c)(3), unless the failure is due to intentional disregard. In addition, the transferor must recognize gain on the contribution as if the contributed property had been sold for fair market value.

Failure to file information required by section 6046A. Any person who fails to file or report all of the information requested by section 6046A (Form 8865, page 1 and Schedule J) may be subject to a $10,000 penalty for each failure for each reportable transaction. If the failure continues for more than 90 days after notice of the failure by the IRS, an additional $10,000 penalty will apply for each 30-day period (or fraction thereof) during which the failure continues after, the 90-day period has expired. The additional penalty shall not exceed $50,000.

Important: Any person required to file any information on Form 8865 and Schedules I and/or J, who agrees to have another person file the form on that person's behalf may be subject to the above penalties if the other person does not file a correct and proper form and schedule.

Treaty-Based Return Positions. U.S. persons that adopt a return position that any treaty of the United States (including, but not limited to, an income tax treaty, an estate and gift tax treaty, or a friendship, commerce, and navigation treaty) overrides or modifies any provision of the Internal Revenue Code and causes (or potentially causes) a reduction of any tax incurred at any time, generally must disclose that return position on Form 8833, Treaty-Based Return Position Disclosure Under Section 6114 or 7701(b).

Failure to make such a report may result in a $1,000 penalty ($10,000 in the case of a C corporation). See section 6712.

Identification Numbers and Addresses

Use social security numbers or individual taxpayer identification numbers (TIN) to identify individuals. Use employer identification numbers (EIN) to identify estates, trusts, partnerships, and corporations.

Include the suite, room, or other unit number after the street address. If the Post Office does not deliver mail to the street address and the U.S. person has a P.O. box, show the box number instead of the street address.

Foreign address. Enter the information in the following order: city, province or state, and country. Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code, if any. Please do not abbreviate the country name.

Instead, complete all entry spaces in the section and attach the remaining information on additional sheets. The additional sheets must conform with the IRS version of that section.

Identifying Information

Note: All persons required to file Form 8865 must complete this section.

Annual Accounting Period

Enter in the space below the title of Form 8865 the annual accounting period of the foreign partnership for which you are furnishing information. The partnership's annual accounting period should be its tax year, as defined in section 706. However, if you are only required to file Schedule I or J (and the identifying information), report transactions that occurred during your tax year.

Note: See Categories of Filers on page 1. Indicate the categories that describe the person filing the form. If more than one category applies, check all boxes that apply.

Item B

Person(s) On Whose Behalf Form 8865 is Filed

If you are filing on behalf of another person who would otherwise have a reporting requirement (see Exceptions to Filing on page 1), you must identify each such person in Item B. List their names, addresses, identification numbers, and indicate their relationship to the foreign partnership.

Item C

Identification of Common Parent

If the filer is a member of a consolidated group, identify the common parent in Item C, listing its name, address and EIN.

Item 1c

Enter your share of nonrecourse liabilities, partnership-level qualified nonrecourse financing, and other liabilities. Separately state nonrecourse liabilities that are held by an entity that is respected for foreign tax purposes, but disregarded as separate from the partnership for Federal tax purposes.

"Nonrecourse liabilities" are those liabilities of the partnership for which no partner bears the economic risk of loss. The extent to which a partner bears the economic risk is determined under the rules of Regulations section 1.752-2.

"Qualified nonrecourse financing" generally includes financing for which no one is personally liable for repayment that is borrowed for use in an activity of holding real property and that is lent or guaranteed by a federal, state or local government or that is borrowed from a qualified person. Schedule A Partners of Foreign Partnership

All Category (1) filers must complete Schedule A, listing all persons who owned at least a 10-percent interest in the foreign partnership during the partnership's annual accounting period.

Schedule B Income Statement

All Category (1) filers must complete Schedule B, which requires an income statement prepared in the partnership's functional currency. Each item also must be expressed in U.S. dollars translated from the functional currency in accordance with section 989.

Exception: A partnership that would have hyperinflationary currency as its functional currency is subject to special rules set forth in Regulations section 1.985-3. Under these rules, a partnership is determined to have the U.S. dollar as its functional currency. The partnership's hyperinflationary income statement is translated into U.S. dollars and adjusted for exchange gain or loss to correct distortions caused by hyperinflation.

A partnership subject to these rules should complete only the dollar column, using dollar amounts computed and adjusted in accordance with Regulations section 1.985-3.

Report only trade or business activity income for purposes of Schedule B. Do not report rental activity income, portfolio income, or tax-exempt income on these lines; they should be reported on Schedule C-1.

Do not include portfolio income or rental activity income (loss) from other partnerships, estates, or trusts on this line. Instead, report these amounts on the applicable lines of Schedule C-1. Ordinary income or loss from a publicly traded partnership is not reported on this line. Instead, report the amount separately on line 7 of Schedule C-1.

If there is a loss from another partnership, the amount of the loss that may be claimed is subject to the at-risk, basis, and dual consolidated loss limitations, as appropriate.

If the tax year of your partnership does not coincide with the tax year of the other partnership, estate, or trust, include the ordinary income (loss) from the other entity in the tax year in which the other entity's tax year ends.

In addition, each Category (1) filer is also required to attach a separate Schedule G-1 for each U.S. person who directly owns at least a 10-percent interest in the partnership. However, columns (a) through (e) must be completed by or on behalf of a controlling partner.

Lines 1 through 21 are the same for both Schedule C-1 and Schedule G-1, except G-1 should contain information about the partner's distributive share of the requested information. See instructions under Schedule C-1 for more information on completing this schedule. Provide the partner's year-end percentage interest in partnership profits, capital, losses and deductions. Attach a schedule describing in detail any special allocations to the partner.

Identify the applicable line number next to the information entered in the supplemental information space. Show income and gains as a positive number and losses in parentheses. Show any other information that may be needed to file an income tax return that is not shown anywhere else on this schedule.

Include information about the partner's share of gross income from each property, share of production for the tax year, etc., needed to figure the partner's depletion deduction for oil and gas wells. The partnership cannot deduct depletion on oil and gas wells and the partner must determine the allowable amount to report on his or her return. See Pub. 535, Business Expenses, for more information.

Do not enter aggregate cash flows, year-end loan balances, average balances, or net balances. If the partnership disposes of the property in a nonrecognition transaction and receives in exchange substituted basis property with built-in gain, you must also report the disposition of the substituted basis property in the same manner as provided for the contributed property. See section 7701(a)(42) for the definition of substituted basis property and Regulations section 1.704-3(a)(8) for more information.

Codes for Principal Business Activity and Principal Product or Service

This list of Principal Business Activities and their associated codes is designed to classify an enterprise by the type of activity in which it is engaged to facilitate the administration of the Internal Revenue Code. For tax years beginning after 1997, these Principal Business Activity Codes are based on the North American Industry Classification System.

Using the list of activities and codes below, determine from which activity the business derives the largest percentage of its "total receipts." Total receipts is defined as the sum of gross receipts or sales (Schedule B, line 1a), all other income (Schedule B, lines 4 through 6), and income (receipts only) reflected on Schedule C-1, lines 2, 3, and 4a through 4f. If the business purchases raw materials and supplies them to a subcontractor to produce the finished product, but retains title to the product, the business is considered a manufacturer and must use one of the manufacturing codes (311110-339900).

Once the Principal Business Activity is determined, enter the six-digit code from the list below on page 1, item 2f. Also enter a brief description of the business activity in item 2g.

Announcement of the Disbarment and Suspension of Attorneys, Certified Public Accountants, Enrolled Agents, and Enrolled Actuaries From Practice Before the Internal Revenue Service

Under 330, Title 31 of the United States Code, the Secretary of the Treasury, after due notice and opportunity for hearing, is authorized to suspend or disbar from practice before the Internal Revenue Service any person who has violated the rules and regulations governing the recognition of attorneys, certified public accountants, enrolled agents, or enrolled actuaries to practice before the Internal Revenue Service.

Definition of Terms

Revenue rulings and revenue procedures (hereinafter referred to as "rulings") that have an effect on previous rulings use the following defined terms to describe the effect:

Amplified describes a situation where no change is being made in a prior published position, but the prior position is being extended to apply to a variation of the fact situation set forth therein. Thus, if an earlier ruling held that a principle applied to A, and the new ruling holds that the same principle also applies to B, the earlier ruling is amplified. (Compare with modified, below).

Clarified is used in those instances where the language in a prior ruling is being made clear because the language has caused, or may cause, some confusion. It is not used where a position in a prior ruling is being changed.

Distinguished describes a situation where a ruling mentions a previously published ruling and points out an essential difference between them.

Modified is used where the substance of a previously published position is being changed. Thus, if a prior ruling held that a principle applied to A but not to B, and the new ruling holds that it applies to both A and B, the prior ruling is modified because it corrects a published position. (Compare with amplified and clarified, above).

Obsoleted describes a previously published ruling that is not considered determinative with respect to future transactions. This term is most commonly used in a ruling that lists previously published rulings that are obsoleted because of changes in law or regulations. A ruling may also be obsoleted because the substance has been included in regulations subsequently adopted.

Revoked describes situations where the position in the previously published ruling is not correct and the correct position is being stated in the new ruling.

Superseded describes a situation where the new ruling does nothing more than restate the substance and situation of a previously published ruling (or rulings). Thus, the term is used to republish under the 1986 Code and regulations the same position published under the 1939 Code and regulations. The term is also used when it is desired to republish in a single ruling a series of situations, names, etc., that were previously published over a period of time in separate rulings. If the new ruling does more than restate the substance of a prior ruling, a combination of terms is used. For example, modified and superseded describes a situation where the substance of a previously published ruling is being changed in part and is continued without change in part and it is desired to restate the valid portion of the previously published ruling in a new ruling that is self contained. In this case the previously published ruling is first modified and then, as modified, is superseded.

Supplemented is used in situations in which a list, such as a list of the names of countries, is published in a ruling and that list is expanded by adding further names in subsequent rulings. After the original ruling has been supplemented several times, a new ruling may be published that includes the list in the original ruling and the additions, and supersedes all prior rulings in the series.

Suspended is used in rare situations to show that the previous published rulings will not be applied pending some future action such as the issuance of new or amended regulations, the outcome of cases in litigation, or the outcome of a Service study.
